What Is The Principle Of The Tunnel Seasoning Microwave Dryer Condiment Sterilization Equipment ?

The working principle of microwave sterilization equipment is: under the action of microwave, the temperature of the condiment is rapidly increased and the temperature inside and outside is heated at the same time. There is no thermal gradient, and the condiment will not be coked or tender. At the same time, the normal growth and development of the bacteria in the condiment are inhibited and die due to the dual effects of the thermal effect of the electromagnetic field and the biological effect. Finally, the seasoning achieves the purpose of drying and sterilization.
